

PROFILE

Stanley Goodman
President
Windermere House Resort

Stanley Goodman joined Windermere House Resort as President in January 2008. He brings to his position a broad background of over 30 years' experience in the Hospitality and Restaurant industry in Canada and South Africa.

Prior to joining Windermere House, Mr. Goodman served for 12 years as Joint Venture Partner and Director of Outback Steakhouses in Eastern Canada. In this capacity, he was instrumental in establishing the Outback brand in the Canadian market.

While with Outback, he achieved many firsts including: the launch of the first Outback restaurant to open for business outside of the U.S.; the appointment and training of Canadian and international franchise teams; and the development of 17 new restaurant properties in Eastern Canada. While with Outback, Stanley introduced a number of menu innovations and established the company's first meat company outside of the United States.

His many innovations and achievements with Outback earned Stanley the honour of being named "International Outbacker of the Year" for 2001.

Stanley began his career in management as Assistant General Manager of the Moulin Rouge Hotel in Johannesburg, South Africa and subsequently, upon moving to Canada in 1986, he held positions of increasing responsibility with major restaurant chains in this country, leading to his appointment as Director of Operations, Michel's Baguette/MM-Muffins Canada in 1995

Stanley holds a degree in Business Administration from the University of WITS Graduate School, as well as a National Diploma in Hotel Management from WITS Hotel School in South Africa. He has been active for many years in industry affairs and currently serves as Chairman of the Ontario Restaurant and Motel Association.
